

COMMONS GALLERY OPENING FEBRUARY 6, 2013

DOWNSTREAM/UPSTREAM

A Journey Through the Urban Water Cycle

Jonee Kulman Brigham
at Institute on the Environment Commons

INSTITUTE ON THE ENVIRONMENT

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to DiscoverSM

DOWNSTREAM/UPSTREAM

A Journey Through the Urban Water Cycle • Jonee Kulman Brigham

December 21– February 8, 2013

IonE Commons Gallery
Learning & Environmental Sciences
1954 Buford Avenue, St. Paul

Commons Gallery Opening Reception

Wednesday, February 6, 2013
12:00–1:30 pm

JOIN US for the opening of the Institute on the Environment's Commons as a place for engaging arts, science, and the environment. After opening presentations in the IonE seminar room (R380), we will move to the Commons Gallery (R350) to see the opening exhibit, hear a musical performance, and enjoy conversation and refreshments.

Presentations by

CAMILLE GAGE

Manager of arts-based outreach and engagement for On the Commons, a Minneapolis-based commons movement strategy center

JONEE KULMAN BRIGHAM

Architect and researcher at the Center for Sustainable Building Research in the College of Design, and artist

Conveners of IonE's "Conversation-E," which explores the role of interdisciplinary work between the arts and sciences to advance understanding and action toward sustainability

Music provided by Horse Aquarium featuring musicians from the School of Music: Joey Crane on cello, Adam Zahller on voice, bass recorder, trumpet, etc., Andrew Bergmann on double bass, and Maja Radovanlija on guitar.

OPENING EXHIBIT

Downstream/Upstream: A Journey Through the Urban Water Cycle documents a two-week journey that 39 kids, ages 4-6, took to explore the infrastructure of water. On exhibit are the photographs, artists' books, maps, and diagrams that illustrate their exploration of the urban water cycle - upstream and downstream.

COMMONSGALLERY

On the Commons

environment.umn.edu